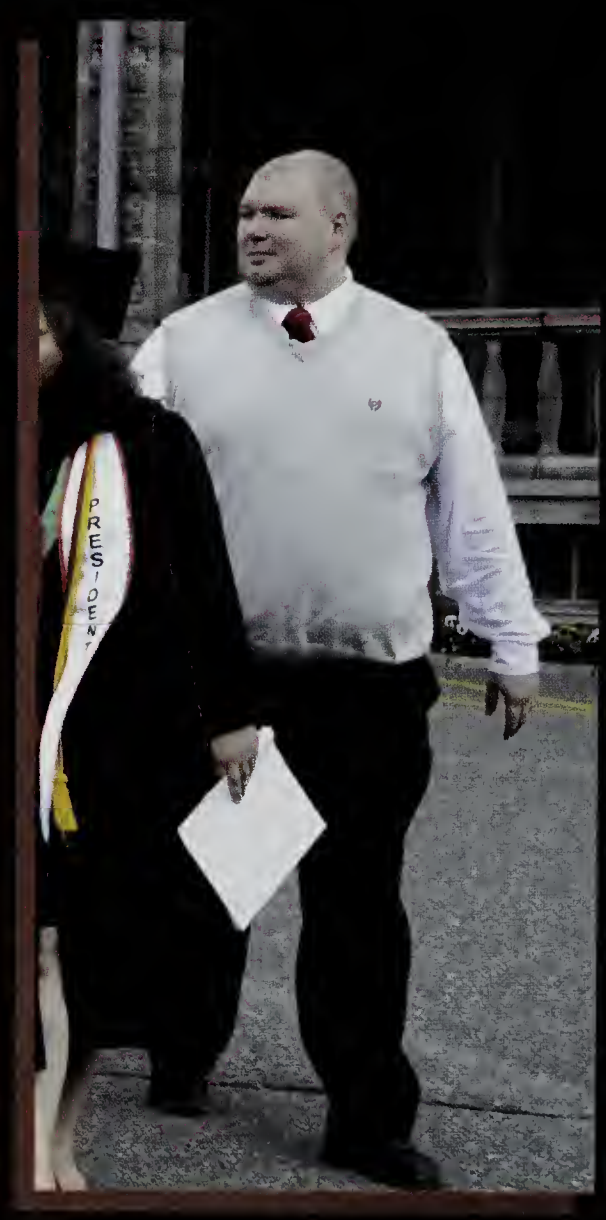
Class of 2011
Yearbook Dedication



Dean of Students
Brandon Dawson

This year, the Tower Yearbook is dedicated to a member of the Manhattanville administration who has been an aide to the Class of 2011 along every step of our journey. From our first day to our last moments on the Quad, Brandon Dawson has put students first and has always gone the extra mile to help the Manhattanville Community. Dean Dawson has maintained a professional relationship with all our class and has always lent a friendly ear. In light of this rapport with the senior class, he has generously made a promise to; whatever the Class of 2011 would raise towards our Senior Class Gift, he would match up to one thousand dollars. He has made his presence felt on our campus, whether it be the nightly stroll with his dog Riley, or his participation in this semester's hit game "Assassins". The Class of 2011 and the Tower Yearbook staff, dedicates the 2011 Tower Yearbook to the Dean of Students, Brandon Dawson.

Welcome Week 2010

Welcome Week was kicked off by the OA Variety Show on the night of Sunday, August 29, 2010 in the East Room. Welcome Week takes place during the first week of classes every year. Many offices on campus held events geared toward the freshmen, but open to all students. The Duchesne Center hosted a number of community service activities and the Office of Student Activities arranged shows by comedian Tom Kelly and mentalist Kevin Hurley. The Club Fair also took place during this week allowing freshmen to learn more about Manhattanville's clubs and sign up for those in which they were interested. The week closed with the Welcome Back Party on Friday: a chance for all students to get together and have fun with music and dancing.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer

The American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk of Westchester took place on Sunday, October 17, 2010 in Purchase, New York. The walk began and ended on the Manhattanville College Campus. Thousands of people chose to get up early on a Sunday morning to come together for this cause. Many of Manhattanville's teams and clubs participated in this event. Whether it was handing out water bottles for the walkers or taking strides as groups, Manhattanville Valiants volunteered their time to give back to the global community.

Dominoes, Platanos, & Fried Chicken

In past years, the event was known as Dominoes and Platanos and was hosted by the Latin American Student Organization (LASO). On September 28, 2010, however, LASO and the Black Student Union (BSU) teamed up to hold the event in the Richard A. Berman Student Center. This time around the event was called Dominoes, Platanos, and Fried Chicken and included guest speakers. Guest speakers and students discussed stereotypes and their impact on society. All those in attendance were able to enjoy each other's company, food, and a friendly game of dominoes.

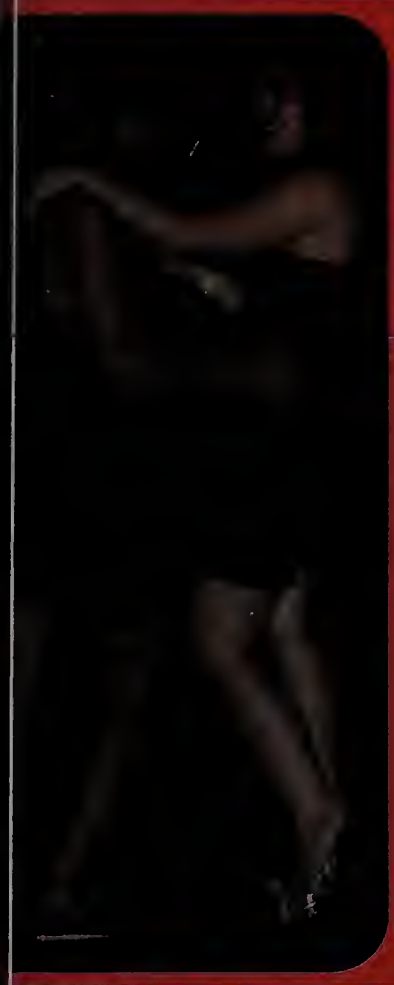
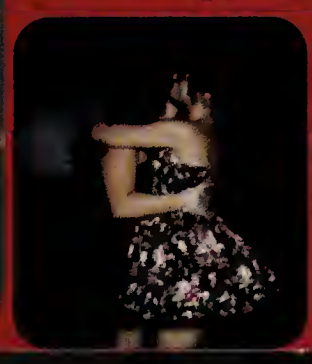
GSA's Fall 2010 LGBTQ Week

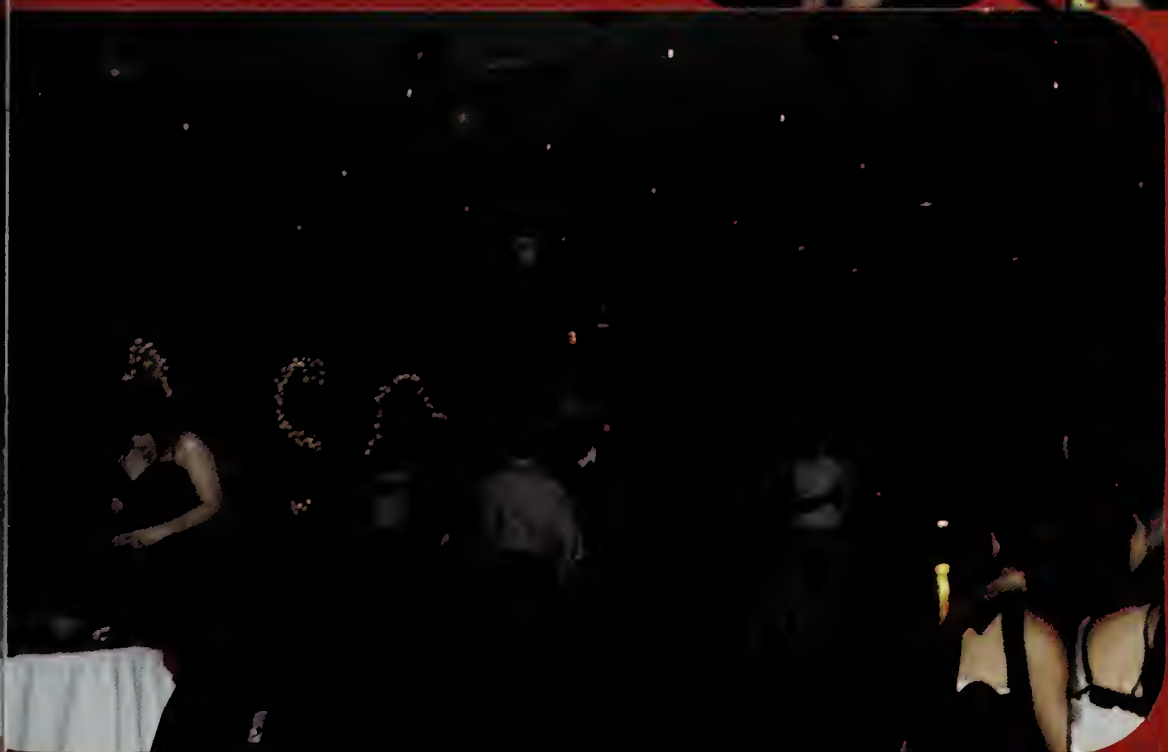
LGBTQ week was a combined effort of the Gay Straight Alliance and the Duchesne Center to bring more awareness to campus about the LGBTQ community and the current concerns around it and the larger community. It is a way to get everyone involved and hopefully it will become a permanent tradition where the club interacts with the campus.

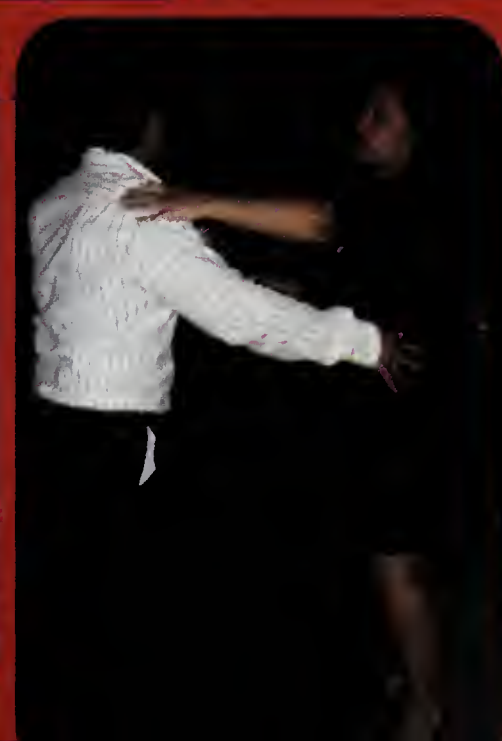
-Barbara Perez (GSA President 2010-2011)

Noche De Gala
Copacabana









Noche de Gala is an annual party thrown by LASO to end Hispanic Heritage Month. This year's theme was Copacabana. The East Room of Benziger Hall was decorated with bright colors and balloons. A live Bachata/Merengue band and a DJ filled the night with music.

BSU's Male Date Auction

The Black Student Union (BSU) held its fourth annual Male Date Auction to raise money for charity. Twenty-four gentlemen gave their time to help raise funds and also to make this event a success once again. The night was filled with performances, bidding, music, and smiles.

Lighting Up the Ville

Lighting Up the Ville was hosted by Manhattanville's very own Step Team. Participants included many Manhattanville students as well as students from other colleges in the tri-state area and Greek organizations. The night was filled with dance performances by Manhattanville's Dance Troupe, Minds in Motion, and the Step Team. Students also sang, rapped, and played instruments to further fill the East Room. This was the first time this event was held and the turnout was great. Hopefully, Lighting up the Ville will become a tradition at Manhattanville.

"It was a goal of the Student Government of 2010-2011 to help boost the spirit of the student body and increase the pride in our school. Our solution was to create the first ever Spirit Week. A success in its first year, we look forward to the continuation of this new tradition in the years to come."

Winter Formal

This year, there was something different about Winter Formal. Held off eampus at Whitby Castle in Rye, New York, the change drew the interest of many students. Although the news of the change was met with mixed emotions, the event was a huge success, signaling what could very well be a new Manhattanville tradition.

Midnight Brunch Fall 2010

Midnight Brunch comes as a treat to many after a weekend full studying and final touches to term papers. The doors to the cafeteria do not open until 11:59pm, but that does not hold students back from showing up at least fifteen minutes early. When the doors do open, students spill into the cafeteria, dash for tables, save seats for their friends, and make their way to the food stations. Students sit, eat, and share some conversation with friends and classmates. Some students even walk on over to the middle of the cafeteria and begin to dance to the music playing. This was the first Midnight Brunch for the freshman class and the penultimate Brunch for the senior class.

On December 19, 2010, our men's basketball team faced off against SUNY Purchase at Madison Square Garden in New York City. Our Valiants made us proud by bringing home a 66-54 victory.

With the exception of a different venue and heightened anxiety, this game was the same as any other. Many fellow Valiants showed their support by attending the game and rooting on our team. That night, Madison Square Garden was introduced to Manhattanville's Valiants.

It can be said with certainty that this was definitely a night to remember for everyone.

After losing nine key members from last year's Freedom Conference title squad, the baseball team finished 2011 with a 16-21 record and a tie for seventh place in the conference. The Valiants got off to one of the best starts in program history, winning six of seven games on Spring Break and their first two up north to start the year 8-1, and also knocked off #7/13 Eastern Connecticut State on the road to conclude March 10-4. Despite a tough end to the year, freshman Alex Basso was named the Freedom Conference Rookie of the Year and was joined on the All-Conference first team by junior Dan Fiorito, while graduate student Joe Gallace and junior Chris Nardozzi earned spots on the All-Conference second team.

The softball team had a very up and down campaign in 2011, eventually finishing at 16-18 and an 8-6 mark in the Freedom Conference. Despite entering the Freedom Conference Tournament as the fourth seed and dropping their first game to DeSales, the Valiants still battled back on day two to defeat FDU-Florham and DeSales and reach the championship round for the first time in four seasons with the conference. Seniors Lindsay Zekus and Samantha Howe represented Manhattanville on the All-Freedom Conference teams with first- and second-team selections, respectively, and Howe finished her stellar career in the top-three of most school pitching categories, including second in strikeouts and innings pitched.

The Valiant men's basketball team had the best semester in program history to start 2010-11, as the Valiants started the season 10-1 – the best start ever – and achieved the first national ranking in recent program history with a 25th-place spot in the D3Hoops.com National Poll. The semester was capped by a 66-54 win over Purchase at Madison Square Garden, where over 1,200 Valiant fans came out to support the team to victory. Early in the second semester, junior Trevoy Pointer also became the 23rd player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau and just the eighth to do so in only three seasons, and was later named to the All-Freedom Conference second team.

Women's Basketball

The women's basketball team had another good year, capturing the program's second straight Freedom regular-season title and finishing with a 17-9 record. The team won a pair of tournaments early in the year at Salem State and Catholic and knocked off #18/23 Bowdoin on November 19, the program's first win over a nationally ranked team since 1982. Senior Simona Gordon became the 10th player in program history to reach 1,000 points on January 13 and was later rewarded with an All-Conference first-team honor along with classmate Carey Hickey, who proceeded to make more history by earning the program's first D3Hoops.com All-Mid-Atlantic Region and MBWA All-Met honors. Hickey finished the year second in Division III in assists and ended her career as just the second Valiant ever to eclipse 500 career assists.

Men's Cross Country

The Valiant men's cross country team produced another promising campaign in 2010, starting with the program's first home invitational in 26 years, with the men's team taking first place at the Valiant Invitational on September 18. The team then scored in all three postseason meets for the first time in program history, taking 11th at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship, 34th at the ECAC Championship and 37th at the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championships. As a result of placing at the NCAAs, the Valiant men also were named an USTFCCCA Division III All-Academic Team for the first time ever.

The Valiant women's cross country team had another successful season in 2010, beginning by capturing first place at the Valiant Invitational on September 18, the program's first home invitational in 26 years.

The successes continued during the postseason, as the Valiants took 10th place at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships, registered a program-record 24th place at the ECAC Championships and sent two runners to the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championships.

Golf

The men's golf team established itself as one of the best teams in the region in 2010-11, winning the program's second straight Freedom Conference Championship and finishing in the top-five in eight of 11 tournaments, including taking first place at the 16-team Hamilton Fall Invitational. The Valiants recorded three of the four lowest single-round scores ever during the season, led by the program-record 295 at the Trinity Invitational on September 12, and as a result received votes in the last three Golf World/NIKE Golf Div. III National Polls of the fall. Freshman Juan Ayala earned medalist honors at the conference championships to win Freedom Player and Rookie of the Year honors, and was joined on the All-Conference teams by senior Lem Randall and Stephen Arnott (first team) and junior Mike Cresci (second team). In addition, Randall and Cresci were both named Cleveland Golf/Sxiron All-America Scholars and Randall earned GCAA PING All-Mid-Atlantic Region honors as well following the season.

Despite a roster featuring just four upperclassmen, the field hockey team continued its climb back toward the top of the Freedom Conference in 2010 by posting nine wins, the most by the program since 2005. Sophomore Kayla Meenan had a breakout season for the Valiants offensively, setting new career highs in all offensive categories and ranking second on the school's single-season points list with 33 points on 11 goals and 11 assists. Senior Jen Ascencio had five goals and five assists this year and finished her career in the top-five in points (third), assists (fourth) and goals (fifth) all-time at Manhattanville.

The women's hockey team had another excellent season in 2010-11, as the Valiants won their eighth ECAC East Conference Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time. After spending much of the winter season in the USCHO.com Division III National rankings and finishing second in the ECAC East regular-season standings, the Valiants outlasted UMass Boston in the ECAC East Tournament semifinals before pulling out a thrilling 4-2 victory over #3 Norwich in the championship game. Sophomore Emy Cote was named Tournament MVP after making a program postseason record 42 saves in the title game. Sophomore Katie Little was named to the All-Conference second team before the postseason, while classmates Mary Rose Morrison and Lauren Nutkevitch were named All-Conference honorable mentions as well.

Under first-year head coach Tim Weir, the men's lacrosse team remained competitive in the tough Middle Atlantic Conference despite a 3-13 record in 2011. The start of the year brought some impressive Valiant victories, including an 11-10 win over Merchant Marine in the team's home opener and a 14-13 (OT) come-from-behind victory over Wheaton in Maryland. Despite the record, a bright spot on the year was the play of sophomore goalie Dom Poletto, who led the MAC and ranked third in Division III in saves (234) at the end of the regular season.

Women's Lacrosse

It was a season of ups and downs for the Valiant women's lacrosse team in 2011, as the squad just missed a spot in the Middle Atlantic Conference Tournament with a 7-9 overall record. The most entertaining game of the year was the team's 15-14 (2OT) home win over Alvernia, in which senior Kirstin Betsill stopped 25 shots – the third most by a goalie in Division III this season – on the way to All-MAC second-team honors. Freshman Casandra Honovich burst onto the scene as a freshman, setting a new school record for goals by a freshman with 59, while sophomore Melissa Goncalves led the team with 69 points and earned a spot as an All-Conference honorable mention.

Coming off a Freedom Conference regular-season title, the men's soccer team continued its recent string of success in 2010, reaching the 10-win plateau for the third straight year with a 10-6-1 record. Juniors Keston George and Emil Sjoberg excelled once again for the Valiants, as both players earned their third straight first-team All-Conference honors and also were named to the NSCAA All-Mid-Atlantic Region team for the second year in a row with spots on the second team. In addition, senior Kenneil Haye and freshman Bryan Merlos earned All-Conference second-team recognition as well for the Valiants.

Women's Soccer

After fighting through a difficult regular-season schedule, the women's soccer team finished a Cinderella season in 2010, winning its second Freedom Conference Tournament championship and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. In the Freedom semifinals, the team came back from two goals down to force overtime and eventually pull out a win over Eastern in penalty kicks to advance to the title game, where Manhattanville then beat top-seeded FDU-Florham by a 2-1 score. Four Valiants received All-Conference honors, as seniors Holly Nonis and Ali Bromson were named to the first team while sophomores Sonia Occhionero and Morgan Rebollal earned spots on the second team. In addition, Nonis became the first two-time NSCAA All-Mid-Atlantic Region selection in program history with a third-team honor, capping a career that saw her become just the fourth player in school history to record 100 career points.

Men's Tennis

It was another successful campaign for the men's tennis team in 2010-11, reaching the Freedom Conference championship match for the third straight season and reaching the 10-win plateau for the fourth straight year. Junior Michael Capozzi was again the team's top player, earning Freedom Player of the Year honors for the second straight season and becoming the program's first player ever to reach 100 career victories. Capozzi was joined by the All-Conference first team by sophomore Karim Mahmoud and Gabriel Pinto, while sophomore Andres Rivera earned a spot on the second team as well.

Women's Tennis

The Manhattanville women's tennis team had a tough 2010-11 season, posting a 1-12 record. Despite the mark, the Valiants had a great comeback victory over neighboring Purchase in September, coming back from a 3-0 hole to defeat the Panthers, 5-4. Senior Kaitlin Triano also became the first Valiant to reach the semifinals at the Middle Atlantic Conference Individual Championships, defeating the second seed to reach the semis of the fourth-singles bracket.

Six program records fell on the men's side on the year led by junior Morrison Boateng, who broke school records in the 55m, 60m and 400m dashes and was later named Manhattanville's Male Athlete of the Year. In addition, junior Mike Szarkowicz became the school's record holder in the 3,000m and 5,000m and freshman Ben Smith set a new school mark in the mile. Boateng also qualified for the ECAC Championships for the first time, where he won his heat and took 17th place overall in the 400m dash.

After a good indoor season, the men's track team had an even better season outdoors in 2011, setting new program records in 11 different events, scoring nine points at the year-end Middle Atlantic Conference Championships and qualifying for the historic Penn Relays in the 4x400 relay. The two scorers at the conference meet and primary record breakers were junior Morrison Boateng and freshman Chrys Malone, as Boateng set new program marks in the 400m and 800m and Malone became the new record holder in the 100m and 200m. In addition, junior Mike Szarkowicz set new team records in the 5,000m and 10,000m, freshman Dan Caggiano set new records in the 3,000m steeplechase and the javelin, junior Dave Garrison became the new high jump record holder, and both the 4x400 and 4x800 relay teams set new marks as well.

The women's indoor track team performed very well in 2010-11, setting seven new program records and tying for 10th place at the year-end Middle Atlantic Conference Championships. Sophomore Christi Marraccini led the Valiants by setting new program records in the 55m hurdles and 60m hurdles and earning the program's first MAC Track Athlete of the Week honor. Junior Sarah Gustavsson also set two new program records in the 600m and mile, while sophomore Kelly Davidson (800m), freshman Jamela Joseph (60m) and the 4x400 relay team all set new standards as well. In addition, Marraccini became the program's first-ever qualifier for the ECAC Championships, where she finished 24th out of 44 runners in the 55m hurdles.

Despite a small roster, the women's outdoor track team continued its improvement in 2011, as the team saw five program records fall. Four of the records came from the feet of sophomores Christi Marraccini and Kelly Davidson: Marraccini smashed previous program bests in the 100m hurdles and 400m dash, while Davidson broke her own program marks in both the 1,500m and 3,000m steeplechase. The school's 4x400 relay team continued the trend by setting a new program record as well.

Volleyball

First-year head coach Dan Cruz made great strides with the women's volleyball team in 2010, posting a 10-21 record. The 10 wins are the most by the program in nine years, and this came despite playing with the minimum six players all season long. As a result of the small roster, all six Valiants recorded 100 kills on the year for the first time in program history. Freshman Jocelyn Branca posted the second-highest single-season dig total (401) in Valiant annals in her first season, while junior Makana Gomes moved into the top-five in career assists (897) with a full season still to go.
